Festival Notes

- This festival is a fun way to end the year so all events are treated as 'novelty' events. It is therefore not being run under NZRDI.
- We are trialing a new system with only having Open To All events but everyone will get a chance to dance twice as the top couples will go through to the final and those who did not make it, will dance again in a separate final. Please note this does depend on numbers in each event.
- Please note that no competition attire is required but feel free to dress up for Christmas or just in your dance practice wear. No jeans or shorts please.
- We have added a Partnership Excluded section. This is designed for those who don't have a current partner. It is not open to those who are already in a partnership.
- The events will not be run in the same order as the events listed in the following pages.
- The organisers will not be responsible for any lost or damaged personal items.
- Following this festival, it would be great if people could stay to dance socially, chat and share a plate together. If anyone would like to stay please bring a plate to share for supper.
